Schott Communities is a private, non-profit organization founded in 1986 to address the needs of persons who are physically or intellectually challenged.

This unique place strives to create an environment of dignity and care in which individuals who are deaf, blind, and/or disabled are encouraged and challenged to grow in self-acceptance and independence. Over the years, its programs and services have expanded and its work in South Florida has reached increasing numbers of disabled adults, their families, and support persons.

A few examples of our programs and services include:
- Adult Day Training Program
- Social Groups and Dances
- Painting and Crafting Classes
- Counseling Services and Family Support Groups
- Religious Education and Sacramental Preparation
